I have read and understand the seminary's Tuition Refund Policy and Honor Code. I realize that all academic, administrative, and financial requirements must be met before the diploma or degree can be awarded. As a student of the ministry, I agree to follow the Honor Code in all areas of my life. If I willingly violate any of the code areas for my personal gain, I realize the seminary can dismiss me as a student.

REFUND POLICY

A student must notify the seminary in writing with intentions to withdraw. The withdrawal date will be the date the notification is received by International, and this date will be used in determining the amount of refund that is indicated, if any. Students who officially withdraw within three days from the date of enrollment/payment may be granted a tuition refund of 100% if all enrollment materials are returned in their original condition. After three days, the following refund schedules are effective.

TUITION PAID IN FULL*

Students who officially withdraw may be granted a refund of tuition on the following schedule:

Withdrawal:

between 4 - 30 days from date of enrollment/payment.....	80%
between 31 - 60 days from date of enrollment/payment	60%
between 61 - 90 days from date of enrollment/payment.....	40%
after 90 days from date of enrollment/payment	none

* The enrollment fee is not refundable and will not be included in the refund computations.

TUITION PAID ON ANY PAYMENT PLAN

Students who officially withdraw within three days from date of enrollment/payment may be granted a tuition refund of 100%. After three days, no refund will be made for tuition paid on any payment schedule. All monies paid on any payment schedule (including the enrollment fee) will be considered forfeited if the student withdraws.

LATE PAYMENTS

For any monthly payment not paid on time, there will be a $15.00 late payment fee added to the account.

RETURNED CHECKS

A service charge of 5% or $25.00 (whichever is higher) will be added to the student's account for any check returned unpaid by the bank.

COMMENCEMENT

For participation in the annual graduation exercises in Orlando, the student must complete all requirements by April 1 of that year. Registration forms are mailed by February each year, or you may register on-line at www.internationalseminary.com, but the registration form and registration fee must be received in our office by April 1 or participation is not possible. If the graduate has already received the degree certificate, a commemorative certificate, suitable for framing, will be presented at the ceremony. The graduate keeps the hood, cap and gown as souvenirs of the commencement. Ample opportunities for photographs with professors, administrators, and peers are available. All students are encouraged to attend, but attendance is not mandatory.

SEMINARY HONOR CODE

Professionals with the highest of responsibilities as students of the ministry, are required by society and God to show a level of integrity that is beyond reproach.

There are two reasons an Honor Code is needed:

1. There should be a sense of satisfaction that you have done what is Biblically correct.
2. There should be a recognition that people around you see and know that you are a Christian in all you say and do.

INTEGRITY STARTS IN THE CLASSROOM!

Lying:

Lying is making an assertion which intentionally deceives or misleads. This deceitful assertion may be oral, written, or clearly communicated by a gesture.

Your responsibility for the truth goes beyond what is said or written. It includes what is understood and perceived by others.

Stealing:

Stealing is defined as intentionally depriving someone else of property or service without permission.

Cheating:

Cheating is defined as attempting or aiding in the attempt to receive undeserved credit or to give an unfair advantage.

The essence of cheating is the act of deceiving an instructor into thinking that some piece of work is your own, when in fact, it is not.

The submitting of work which is not documented, indicates that it is entirely the work of the student.

Conduct:

At all times and in all situations the student will conduct himself in a Christ-like manner. This applies to both classroom and personal situations.

At all times, you must reflect the values a minister of Christ would hold, at home, work, recreation, and in the classroom.
